

The Wallflowers – One Headlight

(G) So long ago, I (D) don't remember when That's (F#) when they say I lost my only (Bm) friend
Well (G) they said she died easy of a (D) broken heart disease
(F#) As I listened through the cemetery (Bm) trees

(G) I seen the sun comin' up at the (D) funeral at dawn
Of (F#) long broken arm of human (Bm) law
Now it (G) always seemed such a waste
(D) She always had a pretty face
I (F#) wondered why she hung around this (Bm) place

(Chorus)

Hey, (G) come on try a little, (D) Nothing is forever
(Em) There's got to be something (A) better than in the middle
(G) But me and Cinderella, (D) We put it all together
(Em) We can drive it ho(A)me, With one head(G)light (D) (Em) (A)

(G) She said it's cold, it feels like Inde(D)pendence Day
And I (F#) can't break away from this (Bm) parade
But (G) there's got to be an opening
(D) Somewhere here in front of me
Th(F#)rough this maze of ugliness and (Bm) greed

And I seen the (G) sun up ahead at the (D) county line bridge
Sayin' (F#) all there's good and nothingness is (Bm) dead
We'll (G) run until she's out of breath
(D) She ran until there's nothin' left
She (F#) hit the end, it's just her window (Bm) ledge

(Chorus)

(G) Well this place is old, it feels just like a (D) beat up truck
I turn the (F#) engine, but the engine doesn't (Bm) turn
Well (G) it smells of cheap wine and cigarettes
(D) This place is always such a mess
(F#) Sometimes I think I'd like to watch it (Bm) burn

(G) I'm so alone, and I feel just like some(D)body else
Man, I ain't (F#) changed, but I know I ain't the (Bm) same
But (G) somewhere here in between the
(D) city walls of dyin' dreams
I (F#) think her death it must be killin' (Bm) me

(Chorus)
